Thanks to all the parishioners for your continued effort in our BFA goal. Please continue to make your pledges and pay your pledges as soon as possible.

Together we can make this BFA a success

Dt 30: 10-14; Ps 69: 14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36-37; Col 1: 15-20; Lk 10: 25-37

On the one hand, it may seem as if the Lord asks and expects much from us, but does He really? Or, do our attitudes and lifestyles get in the way?

In today's society we have many challenges when it comes to being disciples of the Lord and living as good stewards. Some of these challenges are pointed out in today's readings for this Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The First Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy is part of a sermon that Moses was giving to his people. In fact, the entire Book of Deuteronomy consists of three sermons given by Moses, and today's reading is drawn from the third sermon. This particular sermon offers comfort to the people, because even if they should prove unfaithful, their repentance and God's forgiveness can provide them with a solution.
