INTECESSORY PRAYERS

The Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle B

October 21, 2018

Priest: Let us humbly bring our petitions before God, confident that we can approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Response: Lord, hear our prayer!

- ◆ For the Church, that we may continue to reach out to feed the hungry, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, and visit those who are ill or in prison, seeing the face of Christ in our neighbor, we pray to the Lord....
- ◆ For leaders in government business, and organizations, that they may avoid the temptation to make their authority felt by lording it over the people they lead, we pray to the Lord...
- ◆ For those suffering from terminal illnesses, their families, and their caregivers, that they may be able to see the light in the fullness of days, we pray to the Lord....
- ◆ For all of us here today, that we find the grace to serve, rather than being served, we pray to the Lord
- For all who have died, especially Corestine Ford, and for the intentions of this Mass, Ella Mae Mitchell, Lionel Wiltz, Marshall J. Adams, Marie H. Charlton, Vay G. Smith II, Rosa and Ray A. Brown, Joseph O. Chaisson, may they rejoice in the mercy of God, we pray to the Lord...
- For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts for all our intentions spoken and unspoken,[pause for 10 seconds]; we pray to the Lord.....

Priest: God of all hopefulness, we look to you as we express our needs and petitions. Look with favor upon your people and grant our prayers that we offer today through your son, Jesus Christ.
