To Our Lady of the Rosary

In this prayer to Our Lady of the Rosary, we ask the Virgin Mary to help us to cultivate a habit of interior prayer through the daily recitation of the rosary. This is the object of all of our prayers: to arrive at the point where we can "pray without ceasing," as Saint Paul tells us to do.

A TRIBUTE TO VETERANS AND WORLD WAR II VETERANS

A 21-Gun Salute for our World War II Veterans will be performed in front of the church at the end of mass. Please wear your military uniforms if authorized. Church participation is welcomed.

Jer 31: 7-9; Ps 126: 1-6; Heb 5: 1-6; Mk 10: 46-52

Most of us are accustomed to being called Christians — that is, followers of Christ. However, the Lord’s first followers were not called by that name at all. It was not until many years after His Crucifixion and Resurrection that the term Christian became popularly used. There is a subtle, yet profound reference and statement in today’s Gospel from St. Mark, a reading which presents to us the healing of a blind man. After Jesus has responded to the blind man’s calls for mercy and healing, and the Lord has told him that it was his faith which had saved him, the Gospel tells us of the former blind man, “Immediately he received his sight and followed him (Jesus) on the way.” What is noteworthy about this is at that time and for the first years after Jesus’ Resurrection, His disciples were called “followers of the way.” They recognized Jesus as the way to live and the way to salvation. (Jesus stated more than once, “I am the way.”)

September 13, 2015 Bishop’s Faith Appeal Report

On Earth as it is in Heaven...thy kingdom come, thy will be done... ~Matthew 6:10

Our theme this year is an easily recognizable one taken from the words of the Lord’s Pray in Chapter 6 of the Gospel of Matthew. What you may not remember is that Chapter 6 is a continuation of the Sermon on the Mount which begins with the Beatitudes. One of which tell us, “Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness.” And when Matthew speaks of righteousness he is referring to conduct in conformity with God’s will. So the theme seems a very appropriate guide for our world this year on behalf of diocesan ministries and Catholic Charities of Southeast Texas. Both groups are attempting to bring about a local community in conformity with God’s will - a kingdom here on earth that is as loving and just as the one in heaven.
